

Indiana has one of the best "no-call" programs! I cannot tell you how annoying getting 5-10 calls per day was prior to the implementation of the program. I rarely get to speak to a human when I call a bank - why should they be able to call me at any time day or night and expect to get to talk to me for a sales pitch? Do not let the big business banking lobby influence you to dilute Indiana's fine law!